

QUESTION GUIDE

THE QUESTIONS

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

Tip: Process, management, culture, workload. This question often surfaces what people will not say directly.

[illegible]

7. Do you feel recognised for the work you do? What does recognition mean to you?

Tip: Recognition means different things to different people. Do not assume.

[illegible]

8. How do you feel about your growth and development here?

Tip: Perceived lack of growth is one of the top three reasons people leave. Hear this carefully.

[illegible]

9. What could your manager do more of, or less of, to support you better?

Tip: Ask this gently. Frame it as feedback for the relationship, not a complaint form.

[illegible]

10. If you could change one thing about your role or the team, what would it be?

Tip: End with this. By now trust is built. The answer here is often the most honest of all.

AFTER THE CONVERSATION

Write up your notes within 24 hours. Identify one concrete action you will take. Tell the person what you heard and what you plan to do. Follow through. A stay interview with no follow-up does more damage than no stay interview at all.
